

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1890.

NO. 65

HUSTONVILLE.

—Al Burns and George Miller. Given returned from Pulaski last week with a mixed lot of 34 mule colts.

—A fatality is among the hogs of this vicinity—cholera, of course, as few hogs of late years die of anything else.

—We were sorry to hear of the perverseness of Boyle county's clerk in refusing Bud Dunn license to wed, but he and Jim were adequate to the emergencies and Tompise, as ever, was prompt to respond to the cry of the distressed.

—Well, Wm. Reid, Sr., was out last week again behind old Roan, to give his piscatorial pupils another lesson, and Jim Goode affirms that the rear seat was bolted to the wagon and all parties tied in before starting back from the river, consequently when old Roan smashed into a four-horse wagon the only damage was a crippled wheel. The professor's hand was still in a sling, and whilst the Tyros landed several beautiful bass, the old man's luck was so disgusting he resorted to red-worm bait and put his time in fishing for mud cats.

—Jim Cook and Squire Adams are the champion gardeners of the West End, if we are to judge by the mammoth cabbage heads, of which we were the proud recipient, given without view to getting their names into the papers, understand, and, naturally, accept as correct descriptions of other crops. In private discussions with the gentlemen, separately, we inferred that each is an adept with hoe and rake, but in a little social comparison of notes it crops out that George Bailey has had much to do in Cook's garden and that Alex Cooper can give the pedigree of most of the vegetables in Adams'.

—Uncle Jimmy Walker, one of the oldest citizens of the West End, is an exceedingly skillful carver with pocket-knife, as attested the innumerable walking canes and cob pipes so liberally and copiously distributed among his friends. One of his greedy friends coveted a beautiful cane he recently finished and gave to an appreciative gentleman and grudgingly asked, "Why didn't you give that stick to a Christian?" "By George," retorted Uncle Jimmy, "I wish you'd show me one." But speaking of absurdities, Dr. Brown's rooms have again assumed cozy shape and the improvements are so decided that Mrs. Grundy has striven to give currency to a report that the veteran has at last been aroused to a realization of the "truth of an axiom" found in one of the epistles, or some where else, which reads something thusly: "It is not well to be an old bachelor."

—At Stanford, lately, we were again reminded that the world rapidly grows older and certainly no better, in spots. Once, it was necessary to the safety of nocturnal promenaders, whose insomnia required out-door air, that only coops of the most ferocious fowls should be locked. Now, even the sanctity of Uncle Ed's garden and private apartments is not secure against vandalism. His choicest watermelons, which were cherished for their seeds, have been spirited away and his favorite fowling-piece stolen from the wardrobe just before it was needed in the protection of his crops. Just think of the woe of decline when the ladies of the hotel are persuaded that Mack knows who stole that gun and that Aaron could furnish a tracer to the big melons that were mis-carried. Next we shall be little surprised to read that the straight-laced, exemplary old bachelors of the town preempt reserved seats at every circus and minstrel show. Surely, "it was not ever thus," and home missionary work needs many a ten-dollar tribute.

—Maj. Geo. M. Adams, Secretary of State, was here Friday, en route to Manchester on business. The major appears to have taken a new lease since the adoption of artificial locomotion, and is little less graceful of movement than when possessed of two feet. The same cheery, genial, irresistible Matt of old, Miss Berta Newlin, of Danville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Taylor. Miss Nannie Brown is off for a flying visit to friends at Liberty. Mrs. Maggie Carpenter is again at Louisville with her little daughter Nellie, who is so unfortunate as to require the attention of an oculist. Master W. I. Moore left Friday for Danville, whence he will start early this week for Eureka, Cal., his future home. He will enter his grand-uncle, George R. Knott's, wholesale and retail drug store. "Wee," as he is familiarly known to all his acquaintances, is an exceptionally bright, manly boy, whose capabilities encourage his friends to hope for cheering reports of his rapid development into a first-class business man. George H. Wash has sold to I. F. Steele his stock of drugs, and left for Chicago, proposing to grow up with the town. George leaves many friends, who will be glad to hear of his success.

—Arkansas has 1,125,425 people, a gain of 322,800, which will entitle her to another and perhaps two Congressmen.

—The death of Hon. Philip Francis Thomas, of Maryland, leaves Hon. Harvey Watterson the sole survivor of the 25th Congress, whose first session began 51 years ago next December.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The ladies of the Christian Aid Society will give a supper at College Hall Friday night. Admission 35c.

—The Teachers' Association will hold its sessions in the Baptist church instead of at College Hall as previously announced.

—Messrs. W. H. Brown and Dan Holman sold, this week, to Booth Thompson, of Garrard, 11 head of mountain cattle, averaging 1,100, at 2½ cents.

—Mr. John McKinnaird, the clever blacksmith, has taken himself and family off to Middleboro again to get some of the filthy lucre lying around loose up there.

—A gay party of youngsters, chaperoned by Mr. Walter Garner and Miss Mary Curtis, went to the knobs, south of Crab Orchard, Saturday, chestnutting. They report an immense time.

—A protracted meeting is on this week at Ephesus under the auspices of Revs. K. D. Knoaks, W. T. Reynolds and A. J. Daugherty. Some dozen or more have professed religion and the meeting will probably continue until Sunday.

—The "Juvenile" contest, promised by Prof. Smith a couple of weeks ago, came off Friday night at College Hall, and was witnessed by a fairly good audience. The entries numbered 18, all little boys and girls, whose ages ran all the way from 7 to 12 years. Three dainty souvenir books were the prizes and the cute manner each little miss and little master hit off his or her recitation showed plainly the ambition and emulation uppermost in their eager little minds. Mrs. Hannah Steger, Miss Sallie Green and Miss Sue Buchanan acted as judges of the contest and after comparing the merits of each, adjudged the first prize to Burch Buchanan, the second to Eva Bailey and the third to James Bronaugh. All acquitted themselves handsomely and made their mammas and papas proud of them and their teachers as well.

—Mrs. W. F. Abrahams is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jean Davis, at Knoxville. Mr. J. Will James was up from Punta Gorda, Florida, last week. Mrs. Annie Miller and little daughter have returned home after several days' stay with Mrs. Sue Holmes. Miss Hattie Vanderpool is visiting relatives at Broadhead. Mrs. J. S. Fish was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. G. Carpenter, a portion of last week. Messrs. Charley Singleton and J. S. Edmiston went to Kirksville, Thursday, the former to enter Elliott Institute and the latter to sell some of Wanamaker's fine "clodgers." Mrs. Jean Dickerson, with her two pretty little grand-children, Miss Jeanie Lasley and Master Valentine Lasley, left this week to visit her brother's family in Vermont. T. B. Carson, of Cincinnati, the commercial traveler and real estate dealer, was in town Saturday. Mrs. Lena Miller, of Kearney, Mo., is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Bronaugh. Messrs. R. E. Gaines and Embury Beazley, two Hanging Fork Cavaliers, were here Sunday to see two of our charming girls, Mr. Burney Fish, whose fancy as well as footsteps often turns thitherward, says that Miss Virgie White, a pretty Turnersville brunette, is visiting Miss Maggie Tucker, in the country. Mr. J. T. Chadwick, wife and son, Johnny, are back from Tazewell, Tenn. As Sir Walter Scott remarked on his return from Italy, "There's na house like my ain house," so Jim is moved to say, "There's no town like old Crab." That incompromisable joker, Mr. Chris Hutchinson, was down from Pineville Friday. W. A. Brooks went to Lancaster Saturday and sold, as he always does in every town he visits, a cargo of his good goods. Mr. Stark Fish, of Vincennes, Ind., and Mrs. Sallie Rhinehart, of Pineville, are here visiting their mother, Mrs. J. S. Fish. Stark has gotten to be a fine-looking 240-pounder since he left here some three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Holdam are in Noblesville, Ind., this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Arthur Zeller. Mr. E. K. Higgins, the popular Louisville drummer, is sojourning here a few days with his parents, Mrs. Mollie H. Turner, of Louisville, a very intelligent and charming poetess, left Monday for Danville, after spending two weeks very pleasantly at the Harris House.

Doctors' Attention.

On motion of J. A. Chappell it was ordered that a physician for the paupers be appointed in each magisterial precinct of Lincoln county and the allowance for the medical services are not to exceed the following named sums: Stanford precinct $150; Turnersville $70; Hustonville $80; Crab Orchard $100; Highland $70; Waynesburg $100; Walnut Flat $50; Hubble $50. This order is to be published in four issues of the INTERIOR JOURNAL and the county judge and county clerk are directed to receive bids from the physicians from this date to October 25, 1890, and make contracts with the physician in each precinct offering the lowest bid, which are not to exceed the amounts named. The magistrates of the several precincts are to determine who are paupers. G. B. COOPER, Clerk Lincoln County Court.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The value of church and other untaxed property in Louisville is figured at $76,276,200.

—President Woodruff, of the Mormon church, officially recognizes the United States law against polygamy and forbids further plural marriages.

—Elder J. G. Livingston closed the meeting at Kingsville Sunday night with 65 additions and the membership greatly revived. Elder J. L. Allen assisted in the meeting until taken sick.

—The American Baptist Publication Society last year employed 126 missionaries, who organized 36 churches, founded 420 Sunday schools, baptized 955 persons and gave away 44,000 Bibles.

—Rev. Otto Kuhr went to Athens, Ala., Saturday. He has to work there in a new German settlement. Rev. Paul Sebanke, just arrived from Berlin, Germany, takes his place at Ottenheim.

—Dr. Kelley, the Methodist preacher who gave up his church without the consent of the bishop, to accept the prohibition nomination for governor of Tennessee, is undergoing trial for the offense before the Tennessee conference, which ought to depose him.

—Bishop Fitzgerald, of Little Rock, a few months ago sent an Indian pony to Rev. Peter McCoy, pastor of the Church of St. Mary Star of the Sea, at Baltimore, Md. This Indian pony was a prize much sought for at the recent ladies' fair and was disposed of on the closing night, bringing into the treasury $2,500.

—The Christian church here has refused to accept Rev. J. B. Gibson's resignation and he has yielded to the earnest appeals of the members and agreed to labor with them another year, which will make the seventh. Mr. Gibson had several calls from strong churches, but he preferred to remain with his first love. The church has greatly prospered under his ministrations and he naturally feels a tender solicitude for it.

Growers of hops are realizing a fortune this year—those who planted a large enough acreage of the crop. The yield is small, but the quality supreme. One grower, James E. Clark, of Onisco county, N. Y., will realize $45,000 from his hop harvest. Hip, hop, hurrah!

A combination of nickel is to be used in the armor plating for the new vessels of the navy. The nickel combination plating will turn the huge shells of the modern gun better than the old iron plating. Congress has made an appropriation of $1,000,000 for the purchase of nickel.

At the annual meeting of wholesale druggists in Chicago this year the president of the association criticised severely the senate bill to prevent the adulteration of drugs. He said it gave room for inquiry and the spying out of valuable secrets. Well, why were not all the druggists honest, mixing and compounding on the square? Then there would have been no need of any law at all.

Free trade hens had to hustle during the last days of September. The tariff law went into effect Oct. 6, and it lays a tariff on eggs. In view of this eggs in the United States went up in price at once, about Oct. 1. Some Canadian exporters worked day and night to get their eggs over the line before the bill went into effect. One firm had to ship 15,000 dozen across the border between the 1st and 6th. Thus they got the benefit of the rise.

Give Quickly.

In the face of great calamity all mankind are brethren. Our brothers in Ireland are at the point of starvation. In previous famines there was aid in abundance for them, but it came too late. Whole families were in some cases found lying dead in their cabins, with none left to bury them, before the world was fully awakened to the fact that the famine horror was upon them. The ghastly stories of living skeletons and unburied corpses in the famines of 1846-7 and 1879-80 turn the imagination sick with horror.

In our day news travels quickly. The need of Ireland for food is now fully before the public. It is of course only necessary for the prosperous American people to know there is need, and they will respond royally.

There is need, and urgent need. Contributions of food, money and clothing can be forwarded at once—may be forwarded at once—or the fathers, mothers and chubby checked children of beautiful Ireland will die of starvation. Ireland has given many noble citizens to this country and will give more. Let us feed some of these now.

To those who have no direct way of communicating with committees who take charge of relief funds it is sufficient to say that The New York Sun will act as treasurer and agent for this purpose and will forward faithfully all contributions.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

—By a vote of 36 to 38 Mr. Zack Phelps' resolution to have afternoon sessions, amended by Mr. Miller to begin on the 20th, was defeated.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Rev. George W. Dunlap is conducting a series of meetings in the courthouse in this place.

—Mr. Boyle Gill Royle is furnishing his new residence, corner 4th and Broadway, and will move in soon.

—Of late any kind of goods are sold on the road by drummers, but the first one selling nothing else but pins was here recently.

—A district stewards' meeting was held here Friday to divide and place the money given to this district where it rightly belongs.

—Forepaugh's show, which exhibited here, claims to have lost $3,000 at this place, the crowd being too small to pay the enormous expense.

—Col. J. P. Sanford will deliver the second lecture of the lecture course on the night of the 17th on "Walks in Rome." Clara Louise Kellogg is billed to appear at the Opera House October 24th.

—There has been a great deal of kicking by some of the members of our prominent churches about their pastors attending the circus, which was recently here. I'm thinking if a preacher or any body else never does anything worse than that he'll get a free ticket to enter the gates leading into the Eternal City.

—Hon. Henry D. McHenry, member of the con. con. spent Sunday here with his son, who is attending Centre College. Miss Andrews, of New York, is visiting Miss Mattie McAlister. Mrs. Dr. B. F. Herndon and Miss Nannie Anderson, of Harboursville, are visiting Miss Florence Ball on Pine street. John J. Otter and wife, of Louisville, are visiting at James H. Otter's.

—Mrs. Cornelia Young, widow of Jno. C. Young, and daughter of the late Gov. John J. Crittenden, died in Danville Friday night, aged 74, from a stroke of paralysis, which rendered her speechless from Monday till her death. She leaves four children, Rev. W. C. Young, the present president of Centre College, Mrs. R. P. Jacobs, Miss Sallie Lee Young and Miss Eugenia Young. Two brothers and one sister survive her—Robert Crittenden, of Beattysville, and Gen. Thomas Crittenden, of New York, and Mrs. Chapman Coleman, of Louisville.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—S. W. Thompson and Miss Addie Hobbs will be married at Preachersville on the 16th.

—It is announced that the engagement of Miss Winnie Davis, of Beauvoir, Miss., to Alfred Wilkinson, of Syracuse, N. Y., has been broken off.

—At Aberdeen Squire Beazley married 34 eloping couples between Sept. 1 and Oct. 2. The parties were from Kentucky, West Va. and Pennsylvania.

—Miss Virgie Coppage, of Bradfordsville, who has frequently visited Miss Fannie Swope, of this county, was married last week to E. F. Douglas, of the same town.

—The relatives of Capt. Rogers, of Fort Smith, Ark., are contesting his will giving his young widow $200,000, on the grounds of insanity, claiming that he married under the impression that he had been rejuvenated by being inoculated with the Brown-Sequard Elixir of Life and died shortly afterwards. He must have been crazy.

DEATHS' DOINGS.

—A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthews, of Somerset, died suddenly Saturday.

—The corpse of Miss Alice Conway, daughter of Hon. Sam Ward, who married and went West about a year ago, was brought home for burial a few nights ago.

—Robert Owsley, the 7-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McAlister, died yesterday morning of broncho-pneumonia. The burial will occur this morning in Buffalo Cemetery at 10 o'clock.

—George Keller, who murdered Matthew Carlton, near Louisa, six years ago, was captured in Nebraska and brought back to the scene of his crime.

—Wm. Sprague, Jr., son of Kate Chase, and grandson of Simon P. Chase, was found dead in his room at Seattle, Wash., suffocated by chloroform.

—The sale of lots on the 9th and 10th at Goshen, Va., amounted to $425,000, which breaks the record in Virginia enterprises. This points toward the fulfillment of Commodore Maury's prophecy that Goshen is to become the iron centre of America.

—Men have frequently been mulcted for alienating the affections of wives from their husbands, but it remained for Mrs. Ella T. Burt, of New York, to have to pay to Mrs. Ada Richardson $20,000 for robbing her of the affections of her liege lord. A jury assessed that much damages against her this week.

—The journal clerk of the House of Representatives has been making some calculations and he figures that there were 462 roll-calls during the session just closed, which consumed 184 hours of time, or 37 legislative days. The average time consumed in making a roll-call, recapitulating the names and announcing the pairs is 24 minutes.

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,

JAMES B. MCCREARY.

The nomination of Mr. O. H. Waddle for Congress by the Barbourville convention was a very wise act. Mr. Waddle is ambitious, eloquent and popular, and can come about as near carrying the 11th as any democrat in it. In his own county of Pulaski he can cut the large republican majority down to a mere fraction, even if he does not succeed in carrying it. The republicans there are all torn up into factions, while the democrats are solid and anxious to demonstrate their strength. We heard a prominent republican from the 11th say that Mr. Waddle would carry every county west of Pulaski except Clinton, and that he had enough friends and kinsfolk among the republicans in Pulaski to almost insure him the county. We take it for granted that Mr. Waddle will accept the nomination and enter into the canvass in earnest. He is a fine speaker, with the courage to give full utterance to the faith that is in him and the ability to expound the doctrines of his party.

A NEW YORK fraud advertised for pretty and shapely girls to take part in a big spectacular. Fifty or 60 applied and after carefully measuring their well-made limbs, engaged them, requiring from $1 to $20 apiece as an earnest of good faith, which was to be refunded after the first performance. Afterwards the girls began to smell a mouse and swearing out a warrant had the fellow arrested and lodged in jail. He deserves a penitentiary sentence for his hogishness. To be able to measure 50 pairs of pretty limbs ought to have been sufficient remuneration without making the pretty creatures pay him for the fun.

HON. ASHER G. CARUTH has been declared the democratic nominee for Congress in the Louisville district, his opponent refusing to submit to the action of the democratic party. There is likely, therefore, to be a three-cornered fight, as Headley will probably run as an independent and the republicans having already nominated St. John Boyle on a platform favoring Reed's methods, the tariff infamy and the iniquitous Force bill. There are enough democrats, however, to down them both and it is almost certain that Caruth will succeed himself by an increased majority.

JUDGE TONEY, of Louisville, is getting a little too utterly too toney for his pantaloons. The other day he ordered the sheriff to stop workmen on a building some distance from the court-house because their noise disturbed him. This is a pretty high-handed step and if the workmen had proceeded with their business instead of stopping, it could have been easily demonstrated that Mr. Toney was transcending his authority. The Commercial very truly says: "Courts are not established to hinder the business of the people, but to enforce and protect their rights in carrying on their business."

THE Covington Commonwealth asks to correct the statement that a republican was elected mayor of its city and that the Australian system of voting is a humbug. It says: "J. T. Thomas was not elected mayor of Covington. Defective returns, some of them unsigned in precincts giving the democratic candidate a majority, give Thomas a majority, but the ballots which will be counted do not. As to the Australian system, it did work well. The election was quiet; there was orderly; there wasn't a repeater nor an illegal voter and the ward politician was lost."

THE committees appointed by the bond-holders and the legislature to settle the Virginia State debt question, have agreed to have their differences adjusted by an arbitration committee to be composed of Grover Cleveland, Thomas F. Bayard and three other distinguished men. The debt amounts to a little over $30,000,000 and it is predicted that the terms of settlement will not differ materially from the Riddleberger plan. It is sincerely to be hoped that the question will be amicably settled and eliminated from the politics of the State.

SAMUEL F. MILLER, of the U. S. Supreme Court, was stricken with paralysis Friday night. His entire left side is affected and there are no hopes for his recovery. Judge Miller is a Kentuckian and said to be one of the brainiest and best men on the bench of our highest tribunal. The judge started life as a doctor, but took Gov. Crittenden's advice to study law and finally reached the position which the governor had predicted for him.

THEODORE HALLAM carried Kenton over Judge O'Hara in a primary election Saturday and the chances are good for his nomination for Congress to succeed Mr. Dickerson, who is filling Mr. Carlisle's unexpired term. It is to be hoped that he will be. He is one of the brainiest men in the district.

THE authorities have decided that the Cincinnati Enquirer containing a notice that it would give certain prizes to those who should most nearly estimate the number of votes to be cast by the republican and democratic parties for their respective candidates for Secretary of State, is unmailed under the anti-lottery law lately passed by Congress and the paper has accordingly withdrawn it. This seems to be carrying the thing to a foolish extreme and will likely result in the repeal of the law, which proposes to exercise so much censorship over the public press.

THE pension department has decided that a Missouri artillery man, who got his skull cracked in a fight with a comrade during the war, and a widow whose husband was killed by the cars through his own carelessness, are entitled to pensions. Of course they are. There is no use of straining points this way. Pension them all and give us a grand army of loafers. To this conclusion will it come at last.

NEWS CONDENSED

—The man who wants his estate to go to charitable or religious institutions, ought to give it to them during his lifetime. If he wills it thus, there are ten chances to one that a contest will thwart his wishes. John Crerar's bequest of $3,000,000 to such institutions is now being contested in the Chicago courts by his poor kin, who believe that charity should begin at home.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—H. S. Withers bought of G. A. Siler 36 ewes at $4.

—Kalamazoo shipped 181 tons of celery the other day.

—J. E. Carson bought in Garrard 27 mule colts, mostly mares, at $55 to $80.

—W. B. Hill has bought this season 22 head of mule colts, mostly mares at $65.

—J. H. Graves sold 245 fat cattle to Goldsmith at 41. Corn is brisk at $2.—Lexington Gazette.

—A sunflower stock 14 feet high with 151 flowers on it is the pride of Versailles, Mo.

—J. Stone Walker, trustee of R. R. Terrill, sold to a Kansas party 23 head of horses for $10,000.

—A. T. Nunnally has bought in the last week a car-load of fat 2 and 3-year-old cattle at 31 cts.

—Kidd shipped 300 cattle of 1,000-lb. weight from Mt. Sterling last week, for which he paid 41.

—Nelson beat Axtell's record of 2:12 over the same track at Terre Haute, doing the mile in 2:11.

—J. H. Cash bought of Isaac Herrin 6 mule colts, 4 mares and 2 horses, at $70 for the former and $50 for the latter.

—A farmer took a load of potatoes to Wichita, Kan., the other day, and sold them for as much money as 7 loads brought last season.

—Mr. Geo. P. Bright has a flock of ewes that are giving birth to a fine set of lambs—the second lot this year. This is something rather unusual.

—The Somerset Reporter has notes of sales of 30 long yearling and 2-year-old cattle at $16 and 60 head of 1,100 to 1,500 pound cattle at 11 to 21.

—Nancy Hanks, the Kentuckienne, beat Alabaster, the Ontario, on his own grounds, Saturday, the Cincinnati Trotting Course, winning three straight heats, the best in 2:17.

—It is claimed that the four best 2-year-olds that have shown in Kentucky this year, Sternberg, Evangeline, Lady Wilton and Moonstone, are rich with the blood of George Wilkes.

—George Kratz bought of sundry parties in Bourbon 125 head 1,550 to 1,600-pound cattle at 41 to 41. Eld. J. S. Sweeney was re-elected pastor of the Christian church Sunday by an almost unanimous vote, to serve his 21st year.—Paris News.

—A Missouri farmer purchased a piece of land 13 years ago and devoted the larger part to fruit culture. This year he sold his apple crop of 18 acres on the trees for $12,000 cash, and has refused an offer of $4,500 for 8 acres of pears. The apples brought much more than the cost of the land.

—T. M. Cardwell, auctioneer, reports the sale of G. S. Taylor's stock, etc., as follows: Corn in field, $2.10; horses, $75 to $115; cows, from $31 to $45; calves $13 to $23; hogs, $3.75; sows and pigs, $17 to $23; weanling colts, $75 to $95. The sale was not well attended, not having been advertised sufficiently.

—Geo. Kratz, agent for Lehman Bros., bought nearly 1,000 fat cattle from J. E. Clay at 41, except 42, for which he paid 31. He also bought 300 from Thos. Henry Clay at 41. They will be received from Nov. 10 to Dec. 1. The distilleries in this section are paying $2.50 per barrel for corn.—Paris News.

—Dr. John Foster sold to Thos. Baldwin 300 barrels of corn in the field at $1.75. Dr. Giles, Harris, near Speedwell, has 58 jacks and jennets, the largest number in Madison county. Harvey Cobb sold to A. M. Bass, of Missouri, last week, a jack for $775. At John G. Pond's sale, 35 acres of corn sold at $1.80 at the heap. Squire Green B. Million bought in Harrison county 13 mare and 2 horse mules, all good, at $80, and 22 not so good at $55.—Climax.

—E. W. Lee bought in Lincoln a car-load of 1,500-pound cattle at about 4 cts J. H. Lapsley, of Mercer, sold 30 300-lb hogs at 4 cts. J. B. Caldwell sold to E. W. Lee 22 1,500-pound export cattle at 3.90. H. A. Headley bought 15 rattling good weanling mules at an average of $84 per head. Dunn & Embury have purchased 20 cotton mules at $75 to $100. Capt. J. W. Jacobs, of Atlanta, Ga., bought of James Leavell, of Garrard, an extra fine pair of brown geldings for $500. B. G. Fox sold to a Chicago party a 2-year-old filly for $250.—Danville Advocate.

—COUNTY COURT.—Yesterday was a bright, but a very windy day. The town was full of people, but not a great amount of business was done. Auctioneer Dan Miller reports sales of several small lots of mountain cattle and calves at 1.80, hogs at 3.31 and plug horses at $50 to $60. At I. M. Bruce's lively stable the following sales were made: Jas. Collier sold to Wm. Cloyd a pair of mules for $255, James Smith to same party a pair for $260; Mitchell Taylor to W. G. Halland a pair of same for $230; Spencer, of Garrard, sold to B. B. King a pair of suckling mule colts at $80.

JESSE THOMPSON, the fashionable barber, has changed his place of business and can now be found in the Commercial Hotel building ready to serve the public. For a nice hair cut or a clean shave he "can't be beat."

—Editor Sawyer, the rantankerous prohibitionist who runs the Southern Journal, at Louisville, has been mulcted in the sum of $1,300 for libelling a Bullitt county doctor.

—The grand jury is investigating Schweinfurth, the Dutch Christ, and his "heaven," in Illinois, and the chances are that the imposter and his angels will get their deserts in jail.

LOUISVILLE STORE.

While competitors are busy anticipating the advance and marking up their goods, the Louisville Store is rushed to its utmost capacity selling new goods at old-time prices. We enjoy the reputation of being

THE MOST POPULAR

Dry, Goods, Clothing, Shoe, Boot and Carpet house in Stanford and vicinity. We have gained this by having the best class of goods, selling them at the lowest prices and strictly observing

THE GOLDEN RULE

In all our dealings. We stand ready at all times to rectify mistakes and to make good any unsatisfactory transactions. We guarantee all goods exactly as represented.

YOU'RE NOT IN IT:--The town is full of imitators and would-be competitors. Their tricks and humbugs do not do them any good. They never will be in it, because they do not buy in such large quantities as we do through the co-operation of our large syndicate of stores at Louisville, Winchester, Paris, Carlisle, Cynthia, Mauckport, Elizabeth, Stanford, Ky. With such facilities for buying goods cheaper than these small dealers, we are enabled to sell the best goods at lower prices than many of them pay for theirs, and that's how people who buy from us are guaranteed a saving of 25 per cent. of the money they would spend in buying the same qualities elsewhere. And not alone you buy these goods so cheap, we also will give a ticket with every dollar's worth of goods, entitling you to a chance on the handsome Plush Parlor Set.

Main Street, Stanford, Ky.

THE GAME LAW

For certain farms in Lincoln county passed at the last Legislature, which prohibits the killing of partridges, or quails, with gun or dog for 15 years, with penalty of $20 for each offense, obtained upon proof before a Justice of the Peace, and been upon such proof, gun and dog, in the district bounded as follows: Beginning at the bridge over the town branch at Stanford on the Stanford and Somerset pike, thence with said road, including the entire farms of S. H. Baughman and Mrs. Henry Baughman to the full gate, thence with the Masons Gap road to the Hales Well road, thence with said road to the Hales Gap pike at the church, thence with the said road to the Ottenheim road, thence with said road to the Ottenheim and Stanford pike, to Shelton Coleman's, thence a straight line to Jasper Livingston's, thence to Wm. F. Abraham's on Crab Orchard pike, thence with said pike, including the entire farm of J. S. Owsley, to the old stone house at Rowland, thence to Logan's Creek and with said creek to where the town branch crosses into same, thence with said branch to the beginning.

This is a splendid opening for any one desiring to go into business. Terms made known on day of sale. JOHN W. YERKES, Assignee, Danville, Ky.

Commissioner's Sale

—OF A—

Valuable Lincoln County Farm.

Adair Circuit Court. H. C. Baker, Admr., with the will annexed of W. P. Williams, dec'd., Plff., vs. John W. Williams, &c. Defts. Notice. By virtue of a decree in the above styled case, rendered at the September term, 1890, of the Adair Circuit Court, I will, as Special Commissioner of said Court, on Thursday, Nov. 13th, 1890,

On the premises, sell to the highest bidder at public auction, on a credit of 1, 2 and 3 months, equal installments, a certain Tract of Land known as the Wm. P. Williams farm, lying in Lincoln Co., on the waters of Hanging Fork, and immediately on the pike leading from Danville to Hustonville, about 1 1/2 miles from Hustonville, being the same land decided by Wm. P. Williams to W. H. Huston by deed dated August 29, 1878, and recorded in the Lincoln County Court Clerk's office, to which reference is made for a full description, containing 158 Acres 2 Rods and 24 Poles. Said land will be offered in two or more tracts and then all together, and the bid or bids will be accepted and reported which realize the largest amount of money. At the same time and place and upon the same terms I will sell the Tract of Land containing about 40 Acres, more or less, conveyed to said Williams by A. W. Harper and wife by deed dated Jan. 1, 1877, and recorded in said office, lying in said county on the waters of Harris Fork. Bonds required of the purchasers with good securities, bearing interest from date of sale and having the force and effect of a judgment. H. C. BAKER, Special Com'r.

Having removed my Barber Shop to the Commercial Hotel, I am prepared to accommodate ladies as well as gentlemen in anything they may wish in my line. Children also waited on. Call on me. JESSE THOMPSON, In Commercial Hotel.

PERSONAL POINTS.

JAS. T. CARSON is at home for a few days.
DR. J. F. PEYTON was in Louisville last week.
MRS. R. S. LYTLE is confined to her room with fever.
COL. W. G. WELCH returned from Louisville yesterday.
MISS ANNIE ALFORD is visiting friends at Lawrenceburg.
MR. T. W. HIGGINS, of Louisville, is with friends here.
MACK FERRILL is now pulling the reins on the Lancaster stage.
M. S. McMULLEN, of Rockcastle, was down yesterday with stock.
MR. G. B. COOPER is still unable to attend to his duties as county clerk.
MRS. MAGGIE CARPENTER, of the West End, returned to Louisville Friday.
MISS ANNIE HIGGINS, of Kirksville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. W. Parris.
MRS. CATH BAILEY has returned from a lengthy visit to relatives in Shelby.
MRS. J. T. WALLER and Miss Flossie returned from Louisville Saturday night.
MRS. R. G. HALL, of Somerset, is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Wear.
Drs. D. L. FRY and A. S. Price have been wrestling with malarial fever several days.
WILL OWSELEY, of Lancaster, left yesterday for Denver, Col., with a view to locating.
MR. J. R. MAHRS, of the Record, was here yesterday, adding to his subscription list.
DR. JOHN H. DUNCAN and wife, of Kansas City, have been visiting his cousin, Hon. W. H. Miller.
MRS. D. R. HAMILTON, of Louisville, is the guest of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hamilton.
MRS. S. W. GIVENS, JR., went over to Lexington Friday to visit her sisters, Mrs. Surber and Mrs. Fields.
MR. N. C. ELTING, cashier of the Bank of Florence, Ala., was here last week on business connected with his bank.
MISS EMMA GARRARD, who has been visiting Miss Louise Bailey, left Saturday to visit relatives in Lexington.
MESSRS. J. P. and C. L. CROW took in the Naudy Hanks-Alabaster trot and a good deal of Ohio's filthy lucre.
MRS. W. F. RAMSEY is visiting her sons, Louis and George, in Lexington. The latter came over for her Sunday.
DR. J. T. BOHON and Miss Annie Bohon, of the West End, have been visiting Mrs. T. J. Foster and other relatives.
MISS MARY LITCOW, a charming young lady from Louisville, who has been visiting Miss Devie Feland, returned home yesterday.
MRS. BETTIE MCKINNEY went to Richmond Saturday to be present at the marriage of her niece, Miss Katie Phelps, to J. W. Caperton, on the 15th.
MR. JOS. E. PLEASANTS, who has been in California for a year or two, returned with his family Sunday. He says he's gotten enough of it and that Kentucky is hereafter good enough for him.
JOHN HENDREN, who has for several years been in the employ of Mr. A. T. Nunneley, left yesterday to make his home at Kirksville. His wife will go up as soon as he can make preparations for her.
MR. BRECK JONES and family, who have been visiting relatives near Burgin, returned to their home at St. Louis Tuesday. Misses Emma Garrard, Louise Bailey and Birdie Wallace, of Stanford, were guests of Mrs. J. M. Conant Friday.—Danville Advocate.
CONGRESSMAN J. H. WILSON, accompanied by Ed Parker, Esq., of London, were here here Sunday, returning from Richmond. Mr. Wilson wore the air of a pretty well satisfied man, but Brer Waddle will take some of the confidence out of him before he is many days older.
HON. W. H. MILLER came home to attend county court yesterday. He thinks the entire week will be devoted to the considering of the Bill of Rights, upon which so much oratory has already been lavished. Mr. Miller is confident that a final adjournment of the body will be had before Christmas.
MR. JOHN B. MYERS will leave in a few days to spend his 21st birthday with his mother, Mrs. M. S. Thurman, at Villisca, Iowa. There is a probability that he will not return, but instead spend two or three years at a theological school to prepare himself for the ministry, to which he seems to be called. He is an excellent young man and everybody will wish him well.
MR. J. B. FISH, of Pineville, was here yesterday. He tells us that he was imported to let his name go before the convention at Barbourville, last week, and is confident that he could have received the nomination, but his time to make the race. By the way we have it from good authority that Mr. Fish will in a few weeks wed Miss Lizzie Arthur, an acknowledged belle of Williamsburg.

J. S. McWILLIAMS has been appointed postmaster at O. K., this county. He is a Pulaski man.
FOR SALE.—Three sores building and Loan Association stock of the original issue. A. A. Warren.
ROBERT LAND, a liverman at Rowland, was kicked by a horse Saturday and had three of his ribs broken.
REV. J. C. GILLIAM, the prohibition candidate for Congress, was billed to speak at the Court-House last night.
YOUR taxes must be paid during the month of October. Unless they are 6 per cent. will be added on Nov. 1. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.
I WILL sell 200 pairs of 10 by 4 blankets, blue and red borders, at $1 per pair. Cash Bargain Store, opposite Portman House. Joe S. Jones.
ALL the best standard prints, beautiful dark patterns, you can buy for 5 cents per yard. Cash Bargain Store, opposite Portman House. Joe S. Jones.
THE Court of Claims continued the salary of the county judge at $800 and the attorney at $600, but reduced that of the superintendent of schools to $700.
DON'T forget my opening of fall and winter goods, Thursday and Friday next, and remember you are cordially invited to attend. Miss Annie Wray.
I, one of my deputies, will be at Milledgeville, Oct. 16; McKinney, Oct. 17; Hustonville, Oct. 18 and 25 and Mt. Salem, Oct. 30, to collect tax. T. D. Newland, Sheriff.
THE strong wind and heavy dust of yesterday yielded toward night to a nice rain. Cooler weather is promised for today. We have had a week of exceptionally warm and bright weather.
RAILROAD MEN.—Call and see the finest and cheapest gold-filled watch cases ever introduced here. All grades of movements at rock-bottom prices and guaranteed, at W. B. McRoberts', The Jeweler.
THE town trustees or the street lamp lighter, or perhaps both, show partiality to the lower end of town. The lamps in that portion are lighted as far down as Col. Hill's, while those citizens who live beyond the College on upper Main are compelled to grope in darkness. Why is it thus?
THE colored nine of this place played the Lancaster club here Friday and beat them about as badly as the INTERIOR JOURNAL did the pet nine of that place. The game wound up in a row and a rumpus at the beginning of the 6th inning, when the score stood 16 to 2 in favor of the Stanfords.
THE Harrodsburg Democrat says that Handman will move his beer bottling establishment from Danville to that place. The Danvillites will soon have to deaden over the line for a cool draught of that beverage or patronize the blind tigers, which it seems an impossibility to rid the county of.
WHILE hauling hay Saturday the team driven by Mr. B. D. Holtzclaw became frightened and took out at a break-neck speed. The wagon was overturned and Mr. Holtzclaw was buried in the hay so deep that the wagon and horses were out of sight before he could extricate himself. He was not badly hurt, but was nearly suffocated before he got out.
THE L. & N. Co. has very sensibly decided to make Rowland, our suburban town, one of its principal headquarters. A round-house is to be built and many other improvements will be made. Three miles or more of additional side track is already being put in and the number of workmen already employed there will be greatly augmented. About $30,000 will be spent, of which Stanford will get a goodly share, as the workmen will give the merchants here the benefit of the greater portion of their trade.
A FEW days ago R. E. Hughes telegraphed to the Louisville Times that Capt. W. J. Kinnaird and Miss Jennie Faulkner had eloped to Louisville and married. As it was untrue the notice created much mortification to the parties. Mr. Hughes claimed that young Florence Robinson had given him the item, which he denied. Yesterday they met at Lancaster and after some words Robinson hit Hughes in the face with a rock wounding him badly. Hughes, however, succeeded in getting hold of his opponent and they were pommeling each other vigorously when friends put a stop to the battle.

Lost.—A small, red, memorandum book. Finder will please return to this office.
MR. REUBEN FLORA has rented Hale's Well and says he is going to run it as a first class resort.
BIG drive in men's suits, all wool, $8, $9, $10 and $12, this week. Joe S. Jones, opposite Portman House.
THE younger class of belles and beaux enjoyed a chestnut hunt in the knots near Highland Saturday.
OUR stock of heating stoves, coal vases, coal hods, kitchen sets is now complete. Call and see before purchasing. Higgins & McKinney.
ANOTHER lot of those famous kid button shoes for ladies, sizes 3 to 7, just received, only $1 per pair. Opposite Portman House. J. S. Jones.
REMEMBER, all-wool chinchilla overcoats, blue and brown, are selling in the Big Double Store, opposite the Portman House, for $5, sizes 34 to 42. Joe S. Jones.
THE fall opening of Mrs. Elkin's millinery store was largely attended Friday and Saturday and the latest styles of hats and bonnets, tastily trimmed, made the mouths of many of the fair sex free water.
A S effort is being made to oust Mrs. Hannah Fair Ward from the McKinney post-office while she is on her wedding tour, but a republican, who is close to the throne of appointment, told us that she would in no case be removed.
JUDGE DURHAM's bank at Lexington opens its doors to-morrow. The confidence of the public in its success is shown by the fact that the stock sold at 6 per cent. premium even before the first call for its payment was made.
THE clever proprietor of the Model Grocery, Mr. A. A. Warren, is quite a dealer in butter. Besides supplying his home trade he has a couple of contracts at Middleboro and one at Birmingham, Ala., which call for about 250 pounds a week.
JOHN H. CRAIG & Son, with Browning, King & Co., New York, and Wanmaker & Brown, Philadelphia, offer to the trade 2,500 lines of fashionable foreign and American fabrics for men's suits made to order. Fine workmanship and metropolitan styles guaranteed.
THE law does not require that the Farmers Bank and Trust Co. shall publish its statements periodically, but Cashier J. B. Owsley says he will publish one every time the National banks are called upon. He has nothing to conceal, but on the contrary is always willing to let the stockholders and public see just what he is doing.
THE barn of Martin McCormack, at Turnersville, was destroyed by fire Friday night, together with its contents of hay, oats, wagons, plows, &c., causing a loss of $250 or more. There is little doubt that it was set afire, but who would be mean enough to do it is a mystery. McCormack is totally blind from the effects of a powder burn while serving in the army.
IN the county court yesterday but little of importance was done. Squire A. C. Carman's time for holding courts for civil business was fixed for the first Saturdays in March, June, September and December, and Squire B. F. Engleman for the second Saturdays in the same months. F. B. Howard was appointed surveyor in place of Maj. H. A. Evans, who failed to qualify, and give bond.
WORKED HIM.—A slick trick was played on Mr. D. W. Vandever last week and for awhile that gentleman thought himself $20 loser by it. Miss Lizzie Hale, who a few weeks ago gave birth to an illegitimate child, called at his store and passed herself off as a daughter of Mr. Logan Murphy and made purchases to the amount of $20, which Mr. Vandever readily charged to Mr. Murphy. Miss Hale is said to resemble Miss Murphy to some extent and told Mr. Vandever many things concerning Mr. Murphy's home affairs, which he supposed none other than members of his family knew. After completing her purchases, Miss Hale went to Mr. Elmore's store and from there took her departure for home. Later in the afternoon, when business was about over for the day, Mr. Vandever called on his next door neighbor, Mr. Shanks, and in the conversation which followed the former spoke of having had a good day, mentioning the big bill he had sold the supposed Miss Murphy. Mr. Shanks, who had himself been "played" to the tune of a $4 pair of shoes by the same woman in the same way, had profited by experience and studied Miss Hale's features, began to joke Mr. Vandever. That gentleman then commenced a search for Miss Hale, but it was too late, the bird had flown. Mr. Elmore was consulted and he readily recognized the woman as Jeff Hale's daughter and informed Mr. V. that she had a short time before left his store. Marshall Newland was then sent after her. She was found at home and on being told for what she was wanted, she threw out a $20 gold piece and told the marshal to go his way rejoicing. It is believed that several other merchants have been similarly worked and it is likely when settling time comes Mr. Murphy will be surprised at the amount of some of his accounts.
